

Bylaws of the Florida Native Plant Society

Article 1.0 — Purpose

The purpose of the Florida Native Plant Society (Society) is to promote the preservation, conservation, and restoration of the native plants and native plant communities of Florida. The Society supports this purpose by:

- a) educating members, business people, educators, government officials, and the general public about the value of native plants through conferences, workshops, local meetings, and publications,
- b) funding research on native plant species and native plant communities,
- c) restoring and conserving native plant communities and participating in land management activities to enhance native plant habitats, and
- d) encouraging local landscaping practices that preserve Florida's native plant heritage.

Article 2.0 — Corporation

The Florida Native Plant Society (Society) is incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida (Chapter 617, F.A.C.) and is recognized as a not-for-profit organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended. The provisions of these Bylaws are supplementary to, and subordinate to, the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, as implemented in 1986.

Article 3.0 — Office

The principal office of the Society shall be in the state of Florida. The Society shall designate a registered office in accordance with Florida law and shall maintain it continuously.

Article 4.0 — Membership

- 4.01 Eligibility – Any person, household/family, business, or organization supporting the mission of the Society is eligible for membership upon payment of dues. Memberships are not transferrable.
- 4.02 Membership Administration. Definitions of membership categories, the annual dues for each class of membership, policy for reinstatement after short-term lapse, and forms for membership solicitation and renewal, shall be as established by the Board of Directors (Board).
- 4.03 Member Responsibilities – All members are expected to: (1) abide by Society Bylaws and policies, (2) make timely payment of dues, (3) provide current contact information, and (4) conduct themselves with regard for the environment consistent with the Society's Mission and Goals.

Bylaws of the Florida Native Plant Society

Amended in May 1988; Revised in May 1993, May 1997, June 1998, May 2003, April 2007, May 2008, May 2010, May 2011, May 2013, April 2014, May 2015, May 2016

- 4.04 Membership Termination. Membership shall end:
1. when dues are in default.
 2. when a valid mailing or emailing address is no longer available.
 3. upon the death or resignation of a member.
 4. for cause, when a member is convicted of violation of environmental law, or is deemed to have committed acts contrary to the written policies of FNPS, a two-thirds majority of the FNPS Board may order that their membership be terminated, or that renewal of their membership be denied
- 4.05 Reinstatement. Following termination of membership as defined above (Section 4.04), a membership may be reinstated by reapplication with payment of dues, or by submission of a valid mailing address if dues are still current. If the membership has been lapsed for six months or more, it shall have a new annual payment month that corresponds to the date of reinstatement. If membership is terminated for cause, membership status shall require an affirmative vote of two-thirds of those members present at an FNPS Board meeting.
- 4.06 Membership Rights
- 4.061 Of persons. Each person who is a member is entitled to (1) participate in FNPS sponsored activities, (2) have one vote on any question requiring a vote of the general membership, (3) seek election as an Officer or Director or appointment to a committee; and (4) attend meetings of the Board or Executive Committee on a non-participating basis.
- 4.062 Of others. Each group or business that is a member is entitled to (1) have all persons in the group or business participate in Society sponsored activities, (2) one vote on any question requiring a vote of the general membership,(3) have one of their group or business eligible to be elected or appointed an officer or director, and (4) attend meetings of the Board or Executive Committee on a non-participating basis.
- 4.063 To assets. No member shall possess any property right in or to any property of FNPS. In the event all memberships are terminated or in the event of dissolution of FNPS, then after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of FNPS, the Board shall dispose of the remaining property of FNPS in accord with state and federal law, and the FNPS Articles of Incorporation. No earnings or other property of FNPS shall be distributed to, or inure to the benefit of, any member, former member, director, or officer of FNPS, or any other private individual, either directly or indirectly, except for payments made for goods or services received by the Society pursuant to contracts approved by the Board.
- 4.07 Powers. At annual meetings members shall, by a plurality decision of those present, elect Officers and Directors-at-Large. At all meetings of members, members are entitled to vote on any motion, which vote shall be controlling if contrary to a vote of the Board.

Article 5.0 — Board of Directors

- 5.01 Composition. The Board of Directors (Board) shall consist of not more than twenty-two Directors composed of the following: (a) all Officers of the Society (b) 3 Directors representing the Council of Chapters (see Article 12.0); and (c) up to 12 but not less than eight other Directors, comprised of 3 Directors-at-Large and all standing committee chairs. In the case of elimination of standing committees or vacancies, the number of Directors

Amended in May 1988; Revised in May 1993, May 1997, June 1998, May 2003, April 2007, May 2008, May 2010, May 2011, May 2013, April 2014, May 2015, May 2016

serving in this category may be reduced, with a minimum of 8 being required. These Directors are accountable for implementation of the strategic goals and initiatives of the Society.

- 5.02 Qualifications. Only FNPS members in good standing are eligible to be Directors.
- 5.03 Right to assets. No member of the Board shall possess any property right in or to any property of FNPS.
- 5.04 Powers. All governing powers reside with the Board except those reserved in these Bylaws for Members, Officers, or the Council of Chapters.
- 5.05 Vacancy. The vacancy of a Director-at-Large shall be filled by the Board for the unexpired term of the Director.
- 5.06 Removal. The removal of an elected Officer or Director-at-Large can be done only by majority vote at an Annual Membership Meeting. However, an Officer or Director-at-Large may be requested to resign at any time on the affirmative vote of a two-thirds majority of the FNPS Board whenever, in its judgment, the Society will be best served thereby.
- 5.07 Resignation. A directorship shall terminate upon the Director's resignation, death, or non-payment of dues. Directorships may not be transferred.

6.0 — Officers

- 6.01 Organization. Officers shall consist of a President, Vice President for Administration, Vice President for Finance, Secretary, and Treasurer.
- 6.02 Qualifications. Only FNPS members in good standing may be Officers.
- 6.03 Duties of Officers.
 - 6.031 President. As the principal officer representing FNPS, the President shall (1) preside at all meetings of and make reports to members and the Board, (2) supervise FNPS affairs, (3) direct and supervise contract services, (4) mentor the President-elect and (5) perform all such other duties that are either incidental to the office or delegated to the office by the Board. Other duties shall include:
 - 6.0311 President-elect. The President-elect shall participate for one year as a member of the Board and the Executive Committee in order to gain mastery of FNPS operations and the duties of the office of President.
 - 6.0312 Past President. “The Past President shall provide assistance and support to the President as requested by FNPS for one year and shall participate as a member of the Board and the Executive Committee for one year following his/her term as President.”
 - 6.032 Vice President for Administration. General duties shall include:
 - 6.0321 Such powers and duties as may be delegated by the Board or the President.
 - 6.0322 Exercising the functions of the President during the absence or disability of the President.

Amended in May 1988; Revised in May 1993, May 1997, June 1998, May 2003, April 2007, May 2008, May 2010, May 2011, May 2013, April 2014, May 2015, May 2016

- 6.0323 Responsibility for overseeing contracted services.
- 6.033 Vice President for Finance. General duties shall include:
 - 6.0331 Such powers and duties as may be delegated by the Board or the President.
 - 6.0332 Exercising the functions of the President during the absence or disability of both the President and the Vice President for Administration.
 - 6.0333 Directing the development of long-range strategic fiscal planning.
- 6.034 Secretary. The Secretary shall keep, or cause to be kept, the minutes of all meetings of (1) the members, (2) the Board, and (3) the Executive Committee. Minutes shall include the following: (a) time and place of the meeting, (b) the notice given, (c) the names of those present at board and executive committee meetings, (d) the number of members present or represented by written proxy at membership meetings, and (e) the proceedings. Minutes of Board, Executive Committee, and Member meetings shall be posted on the Society's website or mailed to all Directors who request a printed copy prior to the next meeting. Other duties are:
 - a. accepting applications for chapter affiliation and presentation of same to the Board,
 - b. preservation of FNPS documents including chapter applications and contracts, and
 - c. such other duties as delegated by the members, the Board, or these Bylaws, in keeping with state and federal laws.
- 6.035 Treasurer. The treasurer shall have the following responsibilities:
 - a. keeping and maintaining complete, accurate, and up-to-date accounts of all financial transactions of FNPS including assets, liabilities, receipts, and disbursements
 - b. disbursing FNPS funds consistent with the budget as approved by the Board
 - c. filing all financial reports required by local, state, or federal laws, such as Form 990 with the state Department of Internal Revenue, solicitation reports, excise and intangible tax reports, and an annual report to the State of Florida
 - d. ensuring that the financial records of the Society are audited annually by an independent Certified Public Accountant
 - e. such other duties as delegated by the members, the Board, or these Bylaws, in keeping with state and federal laws.
- 6.04 Vacancy. The vacancy of an Officer shall be filled at a meeting of the Board. A plurality of Directors casting votes shall be sufficient to elect. The term of any Officer so elected shall be the unexpired term of the Officer who created the vacancy.
- 6.05 Records. Officers shall keep in an orderly way all documents and records relating to their responsibilities and duties, and shall deliver them to their successor at the expiration of their term of office.

Article 7.0 — Executive Committee

- 7.01 Composition. The Executive Committee (ExComm) shall consist of the Officers of the Society and one Director from the Council of Chapters. In addition, on odd calendar years,

Bylaws of the Florida Native Plant Society

Amended in May 1988; Revised in May 1993, May 1997, June 1998, May 2003, April 2007, May 2008, May 2010, May 2011, May 2013, April 2014, May 2015, May 2016

the President-elect shall serve on the Executive Committee; on even calendar years, the Past President shall serve (see Section 10.02, Election of the President).

- 7.02 Duties. The Executive Committee shall: (1) conduct the daily routine operations of the Society; (2) oversee activities of all Officers and committees; (3) establish ad hoc committees; and (4) make reports to the Board.
- 7.03 Quorum. A majority of the members of the Executive Committee, including any one Director of the Council, present at any meeting shall constitute a quorum and shall be empowered to conduct the business of the committee.
- 7.04 Access. All Executive Committee meetings are open to Society members on a non-participating basis.

Article 8.0 — Other Committees

- 8.01 Committee Creation.
- 8.011 Temporary. Either the President, the Executive Committee, or the Board may create temporary committees.
- 8.012 Standing. The Board may create standing committees, which must have a minimum of a Chair and 2 additional members who are members in good standing of the FNPS.
- 8.013 All committees. The President may appoint the chairs of the Society's standing committees subject to ratification of the Board. The chair of any committee may recruit and appoint its members as long as they are members of the Society in good standing. Whoever creates a committee has the duty to establish and change its goals, and the power to terminate it and to end an appointment to it.
- 8.02 Powers. The powers of a committee are those given to it by whoever created it. When powers are not specified, the committee has all powers that are reasonably necessary to achieve committee goals, not otherwise restricted by these Bylaws.
- 8.03 Reports. Each committee chair shall report on committee work to the Board (a) when directed by the president or Board, (b) at the end of a year after appointment even if not directed, and (c) after the committee is terminated.
- 8.04 Committee Rules. Committees may adopt their own procedural rules so long as they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws and procedures of the Board.

Article 9.0 — Society Meetings (NEW)

- 9.01 Membership Meetings.
- 9.011 Annual Membership Meeting. The Board of Directors (Board) shall designate a time and place for a meeting of the general membership, to be held at the annual conference. This shall normally be around the first week in May, but not more than fourteen (14) months following the previous general membership meeting. However, failure to hold a timely annual meeting shall in no way affect the terms of Officers or Directors of FNPS, or the validity of actions of its board.

Bylaws of the Florida Native Plant Society

Amended in May 1988; Revised in May 1993, May 1997, June 1998, May 2003, April 2007, May 2008, May 2010, May 2011, May 2013, April 2014, May 2015, May 2016

- 9.012 Other. In addition to annual meetings of members, meetings of members may be called at any time by (a) majority vote of the Board or (b) by the President, and must be called by the President on petition of at least 10% of the members.
- 9.013 Notice. Written notice of all membership meetings, stating the purpose of the meeting, will be provided from three to six weeks in advance. This notice shall appear in Society publications, either written or electronic, posted on the Society's website, and/or mailed to each member.
- 9.014 Quorum. A quorum shall consist of those members attending that membership meeting who shall be empowered to transact Society business on behalf of the entire Society membership.
- 9.015 Access. All Society members in good standing may participate in membership meetings.

9.02 Board of Directors Meetings.

- 9.021 When. The Board of Directors (Board) shall meet a minimum of quarterly, with one meeting to be held at the annual conference. Meetings may be held at a physical location or during a live teleconference or video conference. The time and place of each regular meeting shall be announced no later than the meeting preceding it. Special board meetings may be called by the President or at the request of 5 or more of the Directors. Notice of the time and place of all meetings, including the purpose of any special meeting, shall (a) be communicated to all Directors by email and (b) be posted on the Society's website not less than seven (7) days prior thereto.
- 9.022 Quorum. One-half of the total number of Officers and Directors then in office, and one Director representing the Council of Chapters shall be required for a quorum, who shall be empowered to transact business on behalf of the entire FNPS membership.
- 9.023 Proxy. Voting proxies will be allowed by the Board of Directors with the stipulation that they be selected by the committee chairpersons or directors and that the proxies are limited to no more than three per year.
- 9.024 Access. All Board meetings are open to Society members on a non-participating basis.

9.03 Executive Committee Meetings.

- 9.031 When. The Executive Committee (ExComm) shall meet a minimum of quarterly. Meetings may be held at a physical location or during a live teleconference or video conference. The time, place, and purpose of each ExComm meeting shall be (a) be communicated to all ExComm members by email and (b) be posted on the Society's website not less than seven (7) days prior thereto.

Article 10.0 — Elections of Officers and Directors (NEW)

- 10.01 Elections. All Officers and Directors-at-Large shall be elected by a plurality vote of FNPS members present and voting at the Annual Membership Meeting.

Bylaws of the Florida Native Plant Society

Amended in May 1988; Revised in May 1993, May 1997, June 1998, May 2003, April 2007, May 2008, May 2010, May 2011, May 2013, April 2014, May 2015, May 2016

- 10.02 Timing and Tenure. A President-elect shall be elected in odd calendar years and shall serve for one year as President-elect; upon re-election the following (even) year, this individual shall commence a single two-year term as President, followed by one year of service as Past President.
- 10.021 In odd calendar years, a President-elect shall be elected to a one-year term.
- 10.021 In even calendar years, the President, Vice President of Finance, and Secretary shall be elected to two-year terms.
- 10.022 In odd calendar years, the Vice President of Administration and Treasurer shall be elected to two-year terms.
- 10.023 Three (3) Directors at Large shall be elected for two-year terms, in odd or even calendar years, whenever the previous term expires.
- 10.024 The President shall be limited to one two-year term. The Vice President of Administration, Vice President of Finance, and Treasurer shall be limited to two consecutive two-year terms. The Secretary shall be limited to three consecutive two-year terms. Retiring Officers are immediately eligible to be nominated for a different office. Retired Officers are eligible for appointment to an un-expired term or nomination to the same office after one year.
- 10.025 Directors at Large shall be limited to two consecutive two-year terms.
- 10.026 A chair of a Standing Committee shall retain his/her Directorship so long as he/she continues as chair of the committee.
- 10.027 Officers and Directors shall take office immediately upon election or appointment and serve until duly replaced.
- 10.03 Nominations. Prior to each Annual Membership Meeting, the President shall appoint at least three Society members in good standing to a nominating committee, whose duty shall be to prepare a slate of one or more candidates for Officers and Directors-at-Large for presentation to the membership at the Annual Membership Meeting. The nominees shall be announced to the Board of Directors. Notice shall appear in Society publications, either written or electronic and/or posted on the Society's website. After the slate of the nominating committee is presented at an Annual Membership Meeting, the chair shall ask for and present to the membership any other candidates that members present may propose. No person may be nominated without that person's consent.
- 10.04 Vacancy in office. Director vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term as follows: (1) At-Large – by the Board, (2) standing committee chair – appointed by the President, subject to ratification of the Board, and (3) representatives of the Council of Chapters – selected by the Council of Chapters.

Article 11.0 — Chapters

- 11.01 Organization. Individuals interested in forming a new FNPS chapter shall submit to the Secretary (1) a completed application form containing a list of the names and addresses of prospective chapter members, including proposed Chapter officers and existing FNPS

Bylaws of the Florida Native Plant Society

Amended in May 1988; Revised in May 1993, May 1997, June 1998, May 2003, April 2007, May 2008, May 2010, May 2011, May 2013, April 2014, May 2015, May 2016 members who intend to join the chapter and (2) evidence that membership dues have been received for all persons on the list.

11.02 Chapter Legal Responsibilities:

11.021 Name: The name may represent the city, county, or area in which they exist, the scientific name of a unique or indigenous plant existing in the area, or a common plant name that is descriptive of the area or some combination thereof. Chapters may choose either of the following name styles: (1) _____ Chapter of the Florida Native Plant Society, or (2) _____ a Chapter of the Florida Native Plant Society. All chapter names must be approved by the Board. Chapters are organized as either Voluntary Non-Incorporated Organizations or as Incorporated Organizations. New chapters are expected to apply for a fictitious name from the Florida Secretary of State or to incorporate as a Florida Corporation.

11.022 Federal Tax Identification Number (FEIN): Chapters are required to file for a FEIN. Each FNPS Chapter must maintain a bank account that is used exclusively for Chapter business transactions

11.023 IRS 501 (c)(3) Charitable Organization: Chapters may file for IRS 501(c)(3) status tax exempt status independently or under the FNPS Group Exemption Letter (GEL). If electing to participate as a subordinate in the Society's GEL, a Chapter must provide the annual documentation to the Society required to maintain its participation in the GEL.

11.024 Taxes: Each Chapter is responsible for filing returns and paying any taxes due (sales, income, other) in accordance with all local, state, and federal laws and regulations.

11.03 Officers. Each chapter shall annually elect a President and other Officers. All persons elected shall be FNPS members, and only votes by FNPS members in such elections shall be counted.

11.04 Bylaws. FNPS shall provide model chapter bylaws. Each Chapter shall adopt bylaws (1) which shall not be inconsistent with FNPS Bylaws, and (2) submit a copy of which shall be deposited with the FNPS Secretary.

11.05 Duties.

11.051 Meetings. Chapters shall hold local meetings or field trips at least six times each year.

11.052 Activities. To help foster FNPS's educational and scientific goals in connection with the preservation, conservation, and restoration of both the native plants and native plant communities of Florida, each chapter has the primary responsibility of (1) representing FNPS in its area and (2) initiating programs and actions that are consistent with the FNPS mission.

11.053 Limitations. No chapter, chapter officer, or chapter member has the power to bind FNPS under any circumstances without express authority from the Board.

11.054 Membership growth. All members of chapters also must be members of FNPS. Chapters shall foster the growth of FNPS by soliciting FNPS memberships. Any dues of and information about new members thus obtained shall be sent to FNPS in accord with FNPS Board instructions.

Bylaws of the Florida Native Plant Society

Amended in May 1988; Revised in May 1993, May 1997, June 1998, May 2003, April 2007, May 2008, May 2010, May 2011, May 2013, April 2014, May 2015, May 2016

- 11.06 Discipline. For action inconsistent with these Bylaws, the Board may either terminate or suspend the status and privileges of a chapter. No chapter shall have any proprietary interest in the name "Florida Native Plant Society". Each chapter's right to use "Florida Native Plant Society" either as part of its name or in any other way shall cease upon termination or suspension of its affiliation with FNPS.
- 11.07 Dissolution. A local chapter may be dissolved for cause or inactivity upon majority vote of the FNPS Board of Directors. Following dissolution, no Chapter or Society property shall be retained in the possession of any member. In the event of dispute about ownership of property or responsibility of obligations, any Chapter member may bring the matter before the FNPS Board for voluntary arbitration.

Article 12.0 — Council of Chapters

- 12.01 Organization. The Society's Council of Chapters shall consist of a representative from each Chapter of the Society in good standing, Article 11.0 - Chapters.
- 12.02 Powers. The goals and powers of the Council of Chapters shall be specified by the Board of Directors. Where powers are not specified, the Council has all powers that are reasonably necessary to achieve its goals, not otherwise restricted by these Bylaws. Three members of the Council of Chapters shall be elected by the Council to serve on the Board of Directors, with all of the powers and responsibilities therein. One of the Council representatives serving on the Board of Directors will also serve on the Executive Committee, as selected by the Council of Chapters.
- 12.03 Committees of the Council of Chapters. The Society's Council of Chapters may establish its own committees. Unless otherwise restricted by these Bylaws, by direction of the Board, or by the laws of the State of Florida, any such committee may adopt its own procedural rules. No such committee shall have the status of a Standing Committee under Section 8.012.
- 12.04 Activities. In support of the mission of the Society, the Council of Chapters shall share information and initiate programs and actions consistent with its goals. Meetings may be held in person, via telephone or web-based communication portal at the schedule and location determined by the Council of Chapters.
- 12.05 Selection. Chapter representatives are selected in accordance with the bylaws of their Chapter. Representatives must be members of the Society in good standing.
- 12.06 Representation on Board of Directors. Three (3) Directors from the Council of Chapters shall be elected by a plurality vote of its members to represent the Council on the Board, one of whom shall be selected to serve on the Executive Committee. The term of office and maximum number of terms that may be served by Directors representing the Council of Chapters on the Board shall be determined by the Council of Chapters. The vacancy of a Director representing the Council of Chapters shall be filled by the Council of Chapters.

Article 13.0 — Financial Operations

- 13.01 Contracts. The Board may designate any board member or Society contractor as an agent of FNPS with general or limited authority (1) to enter into any contract on behalf of FNPS or (2) to execute and deliver any instrument on behalf of FNPS. Also, it may authorize any person so designated to sign checks, drafts, or orders for the payment of money, notes, or other evidence of indebtedness as may be issued in the name of FNPS.

- 13.02 Gifts. The Board may accept on behalf of FNPS any contribution, gift, bequest, or device for either the general or specific purposes of FNPS.
- 13.03 Fiscal year. The fiscal year shall correspond to the calendar year.
- 13.04 Principal office. FNPS shall keep the following items at its principal office: (1) books and records of account, (2) minutes of the meeting of members and of the Board, and (3) a list of the names and addresses of all members, and a master copy of the Bylaws; such items may be inspected by any member at any reasonable time.
- 13.05 Tax status. FNPS and each Chapter thereof shall be operated as a scientific, not-for-profit, tax exempt organization as described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or corresponding provision of any later U.S. Internal Revenue law).

Article 14.0 — Logo and Official Publications

- 14.01 Symbol. The saw palmetto (Serenoa repens) is the official symbol of FNPS.
- 14.02 Magazine. FNPS shall publish a magazine, called The Palmetto. It shall contain news and official announcements about FNPS, as well as other material of interest. It may be in either printed or electronic format.
- 14.03 Newsletter. FNPS shall publish a newsletter, called The Sabal Minor. It will contain news and official announcements about FNPS. So long as published in the newsletter, news and official announcements need not be published in The Palmetto. The Sabal Minor shall be in electronic (preferred) or printed format.

Article 15.0 — Parliamentary Authority

For all meetings, the rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised or other meeting rules as approved by the Board shall govern the Society in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws and any special rules of order the Society may adopt.

Article 16.0 — Amendment

- 16.01 Method. These Bylaws may be amended by an affirmative vote of three-fourths of the members present at any Annual Membership Meeting, or at any other meeting of members; or by an affirmative vote of at least a 60% majority of the members participating in an on-line vote and/or mail-in vote which would adhere to the guidelines under Articles 9.013 & 9.014.
- 16.02 Copies. A copy of proposed amendments shall be mailed to any member on request, and shall be made available to any member at a meeting where amendment is being considered. After amendment, an amended copy of these Bylaws shall be posted on the Society's website or provided to each member of the FNPS Board of Directors.
