

Prickly Pear Cactus

Six-lined racerunners (Cnemidophorus sexlineatus) and prickly pear cactus (Opuntia humifusa) thrive in Florida's scrubby upland habitats. The prickly pear's yellow flowers ripen into edible, deep red colored fruits that are enjoyed by birds, reptiles and mammals.